

I drive an automobile all of the time in areas where normal radio reception is very poor. It is very helpful to have the opportunity to listen to XM Radio and find out what is happening in some of the places that I am going to and to keep track of weather conditions on the road to these places. Besides that, I thought we had freedom to do almost what we choose to do.